DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 7-10, 20-24, 32-35, 45-49 and 52 are improper multiple dependent claims because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP 608.01(n). Appropriate corrections are required.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I. Claims 1-52, a method of modulating mammalian smooth muscle cell activity either in vitro or in vivo, regulating smooth muscle cell activity in a mammal, or a method for the treatment and/or prophylaxis a condition characterized by aberrant, unwanted or otherwise inappropriate smooth cell activity in a mammal, the method comprising modulating the functional activity of sphingosine kinase mediated signaling activity by introducing into the smooth muscle cell a nucleic acid molecule encoding sphingosine kinase or the sphingosine kinase expression product, or by contacting the smooth muscle cell with a proteinaceous or non-proteinaceous molecule which modulates transcriptional and/or translational regulation of the sphingosine kinase gene, or by contacting the smooth muscle cell with a proteinaceous or non-proteinaceous molecule which functions as an agonist of the sphingosine kinase expression product, or by contacting the smooth muscle cell with a proteinaceous or non-proteinaceous molecule which functions as an antagonist of the sphingosine kinase expression product; the use of an agent capable of modulating the functionally effective level of sphingosine kinase mediated signaling in a mammal; and a pharmaceutical composition comprising the modulatory agent.

Species Election

This application contains the claims (i.e., claims 1-52) directed to the following patentably distinct species of conditions characterized by aberrant, unwanted or otherwise inappropriate smooth cell activity in a mammal (cited in claims 11-19 and 36-44). The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species (i.e., one condition from claims 13, 16, 17 and 19, or from claims 38, 41, 42 and 44) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 3 or 28 are generic.

Additionally, the claims are directed to the following patentably distinct species of modulating agents (cited in claims 20-23, or in claims 45-48). The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species (i.e., one type compound [nucleic acid, protein or non-protein, agonist or antagonist] from claims 20-23 or claims 45-48) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 2 and 3, or claims 27 and 28 are generic.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Chih-Min Kam whose telephone number is (571) 272-0948. The examiner can normally be reached on 8.00-4:30, Mon-Fri.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Jon Weber can be reached at 571-272-0925. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
